Celebrate Success

Nagi will graduate from Fort Valley State University on May 2 and pursue a career in accounting. Norita and I went to church with Nagi two weeks ago and it is awesome to see God at work.

Sydneesha passed the Georgia high school graduation test and will walk with her class in 2010. She will attend the University of Georgia on a scholarship. I am heading out to meet with Sydneesha and four of our kids to stuff this newsletter and to work on The Luke Project building.

Aleah, one of our LukeAlumni, is ranked #1 in her class at Carver high school and Jessica is ranked #3 in her class at Carver high school. Jessica has applied for a staff position with LukeCamp this summer and will have her first interview next week.

Zabian, after he did not obey the rules, told the truth and we are very proud of him for having the courage to be honest.

Keyera is growing in her relationship with Jesus.

We are humbled that all 50 slots for LukeCamp have been filled 30 days before the beginning of camp. Please pray that God will give the staff and volunteers wisdom, patience, peace, safety, strength and courage to serve every camper this summer. We need your prayers as we ask God to help us and that the kids hearts would be open to God's plan for their lives.

Trusting and Thanking God for Great Things,
