

Jeff:

If you only knew, the real beneficiaries of our work with the Luke Project have been our own people. Each of them have matured and now better understand what it means to "make a difference". It has also enabled our young leaders to see the impact of their time/energy when invested with the less fortunate who are thirsty for their experiences.

As I stated at the park this summer, it is you that has made the biggest impact. Our donated time is a drop in the bucket relative to your commitment. Your work is helping to create a community of good men and women who are learning what it means to respect one another, believe in dreams, and reach for the sky.

Thanks for including us in your venture.

Merry Christmas, Mike