

Legacy Giving - 2016

Sydneesha attended LukeCamp, LukePrep, worked for LukeSports and is moving into management with a company in Atlanta.

Jessica, pictured left, attended LukeCamp, LukePrep and developed a love for God that will manifest itself in the classroom as she graduates from GSU December 14 and begins teaching second graders in January 2017.

Antavious, at age 6, demonstrated a love for God and for having fun, as pictured center on the inner tube, at LukeCamp as he prepares to graduate from high school in May 2017.

Precaria, pictured left next to Norita, started work at LukeSports last week. She is a seven year veteran of LukeCamp dedicated to helping kids grow in their relationship with Christ. Paris, Precaria's sister, pictured right, is a hard worker whose self-awareness and dedication to growth in her relationship with God has been very encouraging.

Legacy Giving - 2016

LaVance, pictured left, attends University of North Carolina School of the Arts. He was asked to dance at LukeCamp one morning and it was his public debut as an artist. The rest is history as he pursues a career in Theater and the Movies honoring God through performing arts.

Aleah, pictured left, graduated from GSU earlier this year and started teaching at Atlanta Neighborhood Charter School. Aleah is the ANCS cheer coach, math teacher and as a former LukeCamp star we are so proud! ANCS is one of the schools participating in LukeSports.

Legacy Giving - 2017

As you plan your 2017 giving we ask that you remember The Luke Project as a Monthly Legacy Supporter with a financial gift to enable kids to grow in their relationship with Christ and become productive citizens.
